

Legal Obligations in the Least Restrictive Environment (LRE) with Special Guest Presenter Jennifer Nix of F3 Law

Join us for a comprehensive, no-cost virtual training focused on the Least Restrictive Environment (LRE) in early childhood education. This session will explore the legal foundations of LRE under the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA), case law, best practices for inclusive settings, and how to support children with disabilities in the LRE through the expertise of Jennifer Nix, Partner at Fagen, Friedman, and Fulfroest LLP. This training will promote compliance and equity in early childhood programs across the state.

Empower your practice with a deeper level of understanding of the legal requirements to ensure the rightful presence of every child.

What You'll Learn

- ✓ When an inclusive preschool needs to be offered as LRE
- ✓ The difference in preschool and transitional kindergarten, as it relates to LRE
- ✓ Factors to consider in determining if a Special Day Class (SDC) is an appropriate placement

Who Should Attend

Appropriate for all levels—Beginner, Intermediate, Advanced

- ✓ General and Special Education Administrators
- ✓ Education Specialists
- ✓ General Education Teachers
- ✓ Related Service Providers
- ✓ School Psychologists
- ✓ Program Specialists

Register Today

November 3, 2025
3 to 4:30 p.m.

Click to register

After registering, you will receive a confirmation email containing information about how to join the meeting.